

About the Institute

Conforming to its motto “SIDDHIRBHAWATI KARMAJA” Motilal Nehru National Institute of Technology Allahabad, is churning out engineers, managers, entrepreneurs, and social scientists of sterling worth. Government of India has declared this to be an Institute of National Importance under NIT Act 2007 and today it stands as an epitome of excellence, knowledge, and achievements. The foundation stone of Institute was laid by Late Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of India, on May 3, 1961 and inaugurated by Late Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri, the second Prime Minister of India on April 18, 1965. Situated in the city of Confluence of three mighty rivers Ganga, Yamuna, and Saraswati, MNNIT boasts of a rich and diverse cross-cultural environment with students coming from across the Nation and Globe.

About the Department

The Department of Humanities and Social Sciences is one of the oldest, out of the 11 academic departments of the Institute. The Department offers multiple choices of core and non-core subjects in Humanities, Social Sciences, Human Resource Management, Accounting, Finance, Psychology, English Language and English Literature to the students of U.G. and P.G. programmes. It also contributes to research by offering Ph.D. Programmes with Institutional Fellowships. Externally Sponsored Research Projects, MDP's, Short Term Courses & Training Program and Post-Doctoral researches are being undertaken regularly.

About the FDP

There are revolutionary changes taking place in the paradigm of the teaching-learning process. New andragogy styles, changes in educational policies & frameworks, and technological upgradation are the main concerns of all educators. All changes need to be updated and absorbed by none other than the educators. The fraternity needs to keep itself redefining and honing its existing skills.

In this backdrop, the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences at Motilal Nehru National Institute of Technology is offering seven-day online Faculty Development Programme on “Fostering Multi-Facets of Higher Education: Ensuring Educators’ Sustainability” to assist the faculty fraternity across the nation to enhance their research, academics, and allied roles.

This FDP is an attempt to disseminate the contemporary skills that an educator needs. It is a hands-on, immersive learning experience designed to equip participants with practical skills and insights into the world of advanced technologies. Apart from being equipped with the skills to tackle and succeed in teaching and learning, this FDP will work on enhancing the persona of an educator through distinct psychological learnings.

Objectives of the FDP

The programmes intends:

- To review a wide perspective for consistent new abilities that address all the aspects that impact faculty success in each setting.
- To assist educators in building a culture for learning based on collaboration, teamwork, and shared vision.
- To indoctrinate the skills to maintain the nobleness and sanctity of the profession among educators.
- To assist in enhancing the academic skills and effective delivery of classroom materials.
- To assist the practising/budding teachers in strengthening their executive roles, and enhancing institutional accreditation.
- To assist the practising/budding teachers in enhancing their mentorship practices at the higher education level.
- To improvise the psychology of an educator and to overcome ethical dilemmas.
- To explore strategies to promote the mental health and well-being of educators.
